2013 New Zealand Junior Driver Championships

The McMillan Equine Feeds 2013 NZ Junior Driver Championship is set to be a great spectacle this year with 12 drivers from all over New Zealand once again competing for supremacy.

The championship will be run over three races at Addington Raceway on Thursday night (July 4), see fields below.

As the highest point scorers, Zac Butcher and Sam Ottley, will captain their respective islands in the Inter-Island Challenge, a competition which was won last year by the South Island team.

Josh Dickie, Roydon Downey, Mitchell Kerr, Simon Lawson, Matty Williamson and last year's reigning champion Zac Butcher, will be attending their last Junior Drivers' Championship as they will be in the ranks of senior drivers next season.

Fixed odds betting for the Championship will open on Thursday morning with the TAB.

Unfortunately Andre Poutama and Roydon Downey miss drives in the first heat, but they will be accorded 7 points each under the conditions of the series.

The fields for Thursday night are as follows:
