Eachway threats in Gray's team

Brett Gray lines up eachway chances across the Diamonds Day card at Ascot Park on Sunday.

The Ryal Bush trainer's six-strong team is headed by his Kindergarten Stakes third placegetter You're So Fine, who steps out in the Group 2 Diamond Creek Farm Classic.

The speedy two-year-old has drawn barrier 2 on the second line and Gray is hopeful that alley could suit him.

"The draw isn't too bad I don't think, it could have been worse," the trainer said.

"I think he could get a good wee run through there and get handy and hopefully get a taste of it at the finish."

You're So Fine stamped his class when rushing home in the Kindergarten Stakes behind Akuta, who is rated in the top tier of New Zealand's two-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

"I was quite happy with his run in the Kindergarten," Gray said.

"I do rate him a bit and I think he will make a good three-year-old."

Gray also debuts Gotta Elect Bill in Sunday's two-year-old feature.

The trainer also has a decent opinion of the pacer, who has produced solid performances against lesser-known two-year-olds at the trials.

"He has actually come along pretty nice this wee fella," Gray said.

"He went quite nice at the Wyndham workouts the other day, he went 3.04 (for 2400m) and ran home in a 28sec quarter (400m)."

"He has got a bit of filling out to do, but he is not the worst and he is a beautiful-mannered wee fella."

"I think he could be a horse with a future as a three-year-old."

Memphis Tennessee has produced consistent recent form and will attempt to continue that in Sunday's Country Cups Final.

Though beating Pembroke's Playboy looks a big ask, the Wyndham Cup winner looks a big top three threat.

"He has got nice and consistent, which is good," Gray said.

"He is a wee bit 50-50 from a stand and he can't afford to give Pembroke Playboy a headstart."

"But it is going to be very hard to beat him, anyway."

Gray debuts Jaccka Opa in race 2 after two excellent displays in his latest trials and workouts.

The three-year-old just need a slice of luck from barrier 5 on the second row to feature.

"He is a nice enough horse, he is a bit rough around the edges and he hasn't got the best of draws."

"He is a little bit of a handful but he is too dumb to stop, so he is a good chance."

Prince Envy comes into race 6 after staging a big recovery from an early gallop to run second at Winton last week.

The five-year-old looks a strong winning threat if he can behave on Sunday.

"We are slowly getting there, it is just annoying these little gallops he is having."

"We have got him going away and now he is having these wee gallops afterwards."

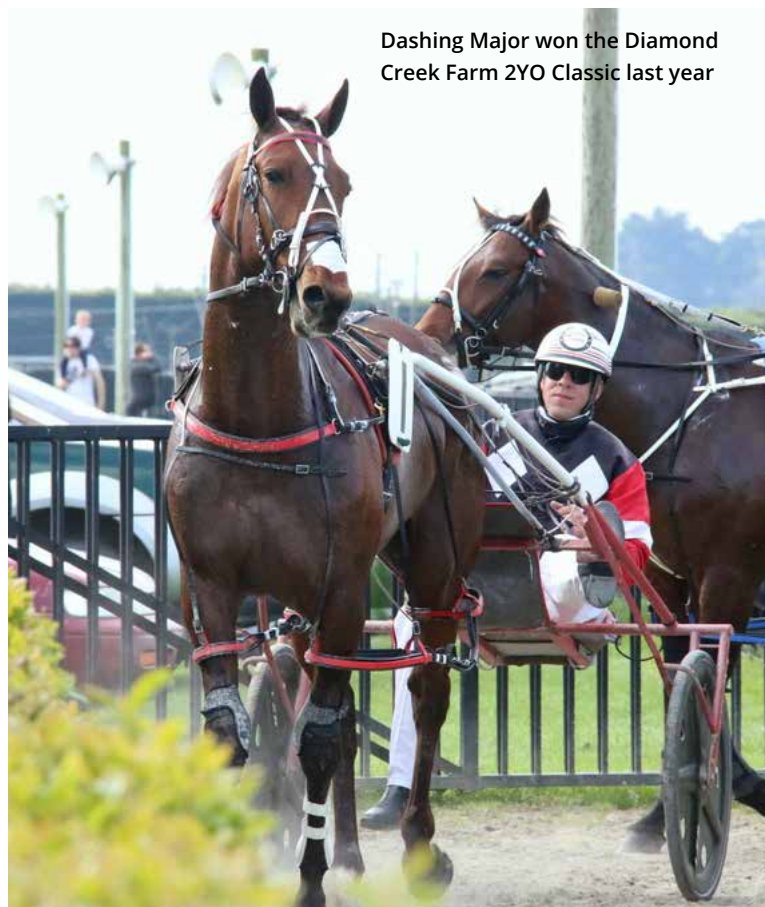

"He did well, he probably did 50m and he ran second at Winton."

"He is not quite trotting 100% but I am happy with him this week so hopefully we can get some regular racing into him and his brain will settle down."

"He has got talent, he has just got to put it together."

Gray also starts Bettor's Highlight in race 1.

Lifes A Beach

Oaks timing perfect for Lifes A Beach

The timing of the Southland Oaks on Diamonds Day could not be better for the ever-improving Lifes A Beach.

In less than two months the Tony Barron trained three-year-old has gone from being a tidy maiden to the favourite for Sunday's Group 2 feature.

Continual improvement from the Bettor's Delight filly has underpinned her progression which has perfectly aligned with the programming of Diamonds Day.

"It is amazing how things work out, we always aimed her at the Southland Oaks," Barron said.

"I always thought she was a lovely Southland Oaks filly without being up in the top class."

"As she has got better and better we are going there with a winning chance."

"We know what racing is like, but she has been racing super."

Many of Sunday's field face a new challenge when stepping up to 2700m from behind the mobile

Lifes A Beach looks like she has all of the credentials needed to handle the staying test.

"She won at Addington over 2600m and came from back and wide and found the line very good," Barron said.

"She is a very well-bred filly that is living up to her breeding and she is just getting better and better."

"She is just a typical Bettor's Delight, really."

Driver John Morrison has sat Lifes A Beach off the speed and let her charge at the line in many of her recent starts.

With the favourite's tag and her barrier 3 draw he may be tempted to press towards the lead.

Barron has no doubts that his filly would relish the front runner's role if she got there.

"I have got no doubt, we took her down to the Geraldine trials and that was the last time she actually drew good enough to lead."

"She led there and jogged it and she loves rolling along in front."

"I am always a little bit weary in these big races over 2700m, you don't really want to burn hard to get there."

"Certainly if she got there and didn't burn too much petrol or anything like that she would have no trouble rolling along in front."

Barron could have two Southland Oaks starters if Classy Dancer gets a start as the race's first emergency.

If she doesn't the three-year-old will line up in race 10 where she would be very hard to beat from barrier 2.

"She is a lovely filly," Barron said.

"In race 10, she is in that right up to her ears."

"She was down at Nathan Williamson's for ten days and she has come home very bright and healthy."

"If she lines up in that one you would expect her to be very handy and very hard to beat."

Barron also brings Miss Mucho south for race 7 on Sunday.

With two runs under her belt this time in the five-year-old will strip at her peak in race 7.

"Third up is where we have been aiming for."

"I thought her run at Addington last week was very, very good."

"She was only a pixel away from running third."

John Morrison also takes the reins behind Classy Dancer and Miss Mucho.

Bookies keep Ragazzo Mach and Republican Party safe

Bookmakers haven't missed two of the leading chances in the feature races on Diamonds Day in Ragazzo Mach and Republican Party.

Punters could be forgiven for thinking they were going to get a little bit more than Ragazzo Mach's $1.55 opening fixed odds price for the Group 2 Southern Supremacy Stakes Final.

Circumstances in the Flying Stakes and the New Zealand Derby have meant the three-year-old comes into the race with two glaring zeros in his formline.

Bookmakers obviously have not been put off by those performances and neither has trainer-driver Nathan Williamson, who is hopeful the real Ragazzo Mach can stand up on Sunday.

"I was happy with him in the derby, he just drew bad and he was out the back the whole way."

"His sectionals were some of the best out of the race."

"He was just too far from them and very wide."

"He has come through his trip away well and he seems happy and healthy."

"I thought his workout on Saturday at Wyndham was very good and I am very happy with him."

"And from the draw (3) he should be hard to beat."

Williamson starts an incredible line up of talent on Sunday including Chinese Whisper in the feature trot and Pembroke Playboy in the Southern Country Cups Final.

Pembroke Playboy comes into his assignment after just a nose split him and Ragazzo Mach in their workout at Wyndham last weekend.

"He trailed lovely, we weren't there to light him up or anything like that," Williamson said.

"They both just had a run off the place and a nice wee blowout just to keep them up to the mark."

"They've both had a lot of racing during the season and it is just a matter of keeping them ticking over and keeping them happy."

"I am really happy with Pembroke Playboy, he should put his best foot forward."

Pembroke Playboy opened at $1.40 odds for Sunday's 2700m feature.

Republican Party was installed the $2.50 early favourite for the Group 2 Diamond Creek Farms Classic.

That is despite the Cran and Chrissie Dalgety trained two-year-old drawing barrier one on the second row and having to debut against more proven horses.

Cran Dalgety just hopes the bookies have got their assessment right.

"I just hope that they are really good judges, that is all I can say."

Republican Party comes into his debut following two recent trials.

The colt raced a little greenly in the first before catching the eye when finishing on well out wide in the latest.

The Dalgetys have set a big task for Republican Party, sending him south from Canterbury to debut in a Group 2 event.

But it is one they think the pacer is capable of handling.

"He will get better, he is not the biggest horse in the field, but he is very fast," Dalgety said.

"The only thing he lacks is racing and ringcraft and he can only get that by going to the races."

"In summary, he is in the well above average category."

Republican Party follows out gate flyer Duke Of Cornwall who has led off the gate before taking a trail in both of his career starts.

DIAMONDS DAY FUN FACTS

Only two drivers have won the Southland Oaks- Southern Supremacy Stakes double in the same season. They are Henry Skinner (Lento and No Return - 1993) and Dexter Dunn (Gaylee's Delight and Texican - 2012). Skinner also trained both his 1993 winners.

This year marks the 20th running of the Southern Country Cups. It was first run in 2001 with the winner being Bonnie Lass. It was a victory for the Brents, trainer Brent McIntyre and driver Brent Barclay. Brent Barclay has won both the Country Cups and the Southern Supremacy three times.

The Williamson brothers are in for one busy day at Ascot Park, with Nathan (11), Matthew (10) and Brad (5) combining for a total of 26 drives on the 12-race programme. Nathan particularly has a strong book of drives including Ragazzo Mach, Chinese Whisper, and Pembroke Playboy.

The Southland Oaks has been going since 1983, and this will be the 39th running of the great race. It's been won by the likes of Josephine Bret (1984), Champagne Princess (2003), Mainland Banner (2005), Kiwi Ingenuity (2008) and Beaudiene Bad Babe (2009).

There will be lots of free stuff on Sunday. Twelve races, including three Group Twos, will be held starting at 11.30am. Upon arrival all ladies on course will be treated to a free glass of wine, there is free coffee and tea on offer and the weekly Farmers Market will also be on course. Admission is also free.

Shorty's Girl achieved a notable double in consecutive years. In 2001 the Allan Beck trained and driven daughter of New York Motoring won the Southland Oaks, and then the Southern Country Cups a year later. Her career record was 11 wins from 32 starts and $223,276 in stakes.

The stake for the Diamond Creek Farm 2YO Classic has more than quadrupled since its inception. Sunday's race will be the eighth running of the race. The first stake was $12,000 - now it's $50,000.

The race record for the Southern Supremacy Stakes is jointly owned by two horses, and set eight years apart. Highview Tommy set the mark in 2009, and Eamon Maguire equalled it in 2017. The record is 3:19.1.

Tim Williams will be aiming for a record-extending fourth win in the Diamond Creek 2YO Classic. On Sunday Williams will drive the Hayden Cullen-trained Franco Indie, who won his debut at Rangiora on April 18. Coincidentally the All Stars stable Cullen took over from (Mark Purdon and Natalie Rasmussen) are the race's most successful trainers, having won it four times.

Get Up N Dance, a half brother to the unbeaten Shut Up N Dance, will debut in race 2. Shut Up N Dance (Art Major - Dance N Delight) impressed with three wins from three starts before being retired because of injury earlier this season. Now Get Up N Dance (Rock N Roll Heaven - Dance N Delight) gets his chance to show off his moves.
