

Media Release

15 November 2012

Terror To Love banks $5,000 for Ronald McDonald House

Ronald McDonald House Charities owe HRNZ Chairman Gary Allen and Terror To Love a great debt of thanks.

Gary's win in the TAB/Christchurch Casino Survivor Challenge enabled him to place his winning bet on Terror To Love in the Christchurch Casino NZ Trotting Cup. That historic win netted the chosen charity $4,875.

The good folk at the TAB will round that figure up to $5000 and present a cheque to Ronald McDonald House Charities in the coming days. The $5000 will be divided equally between the Ronald McDonald Houses in Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch.

Understandably Gary Allen was delighted that not only he could prevail in the Survivor Challenge but earn money for his chosen charity.

"I'm delighted we have provided some money to a very worthwhile charity.

"It's a neat feeling.

"It would be great to be able to do it again someday."

Andrew Morris
Marketing & Communications Manager